FIRE DAMAGE

Loss by Smoke and Water to Furniture Com-

A REFORMATORY FOR GIRLS

Entertainment by the Daughters of Liberty-Marriages.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PETERSBURG, VA., Feb. 15.-Five hundred dollars is about the amount of damage to the building of the Petersbug Fur niture Company, caused by last night's Damage to the large stock, principally by smoke and water, is estimated at several thousand dollars. The losses are covered by insurance. The chance discovery of smoke issuing from a second story window of the store, and the prompt response of the department, pre-prompt response of the department, prevented what would very likely have been a most destructive fire, as the Petersburg Furniture Company is located in the midst of a long block of big stores on lower Sycamore Street.

GIRLS' REFORMATORY.

Dr. William F. Drewry and Mr. Robert Gilliam, of this city, are members of the committee appointed by the Executive Council of the State Conference of Charities and Corrections, to select incorporators for a State reformatory for girls. Dr. Drewry is superintendent of the Central State Hospital, near this city, and Mr. Gilliam is clerk of the Hustings Court.

Virginia Dare Council, No. 5, Daughters of Liberty, gave a large and enjoyable entertainment at Odd-Fellows' Hall last night. Miss Myrtle Rogers won a handsome parlor lamp, the prize of the evening.

James Richardson, colored, charged with a handsome partor lamp, the place of evening.

James Richardson, colored, charged with housebreaking, was sent on to the Hustings Court by the mayor this morning. Richardson, who is a Richamod negro, is accused of robbing a house in Blandford yesterday afternoon.

No grand jury has been summoned for the February term of the Hustings Court, which begins to-morrow. The one or two small cases on the criminal docket will be continued until the March term. INCREASED VALUES.

Messrs, C. L. Barksdale and Hafry Mann, assessors of city real estate, are making good progress in their work, which shows a deedded increase in values over the last assessment, both in land and buildings.

and buildings. Mr. William H. Gentry and Miss Es sic Jones, of this city, were married in Washington this afternoon. They left Washington this afternoon. They left Petersburg on an early train this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Rice Willett, who were married in Richmond yesterday, are reported to be registered at the Chamberlin Hotel, at Old Point.

Mrs. Willett is a daughter of Mr. Charles A. Slaughter, treasurer of Petersburg. Mr. Willett is connected with the United States Interstate Commerce Commission, in Washington,

CAPTAIN FINNEY'S WILL.

The Eastern Shore Steamers Frozen in the Ice. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ONANCOCK, VA., Feb. 15.—The will of the late Captain J. Thomas Pinney has been filed for provide in the Circuit Court of Accomag-coffag. Captain Finney was probably the richest nan on the Virginia Eastern Shore, boing worth about $125,000. He died the first of the month at his home at Finney's Wharf. The will leaves his widow $25,000 in cash and four farms valued at $15,000. To his grandnephew, J. T. Rogers, who was named after the deceased, the old home place of the Finneys was given. Pitts Rogers, another grand-nephew, was left Captain Finney's interests in the wharf property

after the deceased, the old home place of the Finneys was given. Plits Rogers, another grand-nephew, was left Captain Finney's interests in the wharf properly at Finney's, on Onancock Creek, which has a regular line of steamers to Baltimore, The heir has to pay to Mrs. Pinney an annual rent of $20 up until her death.

The church in Sluthpil Neck, Andrew's Chapel, where the deceased was a member, will receive $500 from the estate. Thomas Kliman was left $200. The residue of the estate goes to his legal heirs, fourteen nephews, in equal share. They are Spencer F. Rogers and Thomas Rogers, of Finney's Wharf; John W. Rogers, of Onley; Charles Rogers, of Melfa; John H. Hopkins, of Lee Mant; Sidney J. Hopkins, of Carles Rogers, is Hopkins, of Seston; Oswald F. Hopkins, of Leitches, Md.; Edward B. Waples, Jr., John S. Waples and Samuel T. Waples, of Onancock; Thomas Waples, of Baltimore.

The steamer Maryland, of the Baltimore. The cand cold for the past month have greatly impeded traffic and business. The steamer Maryland, of the Baltimore. Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company, has been frozen up at Pinney's, on Onancock Creek. The other steamer, the Eastern Shore, has been at Crisfield; hence no communication by steamer with Baltimore. The greatest sufferer, though, has been Chincoteague Island. For two weeks the Island was completely without communication with the mainland. The line of steamers to connect with the railroad at Franklin City could not run, so the large oyster traffic from the island to Northern markets was greatly him dered. Hundreds of bushels and thousands of gallons of oysters have been recently brough the Walley and halled by wagon to Bloometow, a distance of eight miles, to connect with the railroad.

LURAY CAVERNS SOLD.

Recently Much Improved. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

LURAY, VA., Feb. 15.—Mr. T. C. Workhcott, of Luray, has purchased the famous Luray Caverns, paying $59.00 for the same. The following board of directors, which will conduct the management of the cayerns, have been named by the purchaser. Dr. W. L. Hudson, H. V. Hudson, Charles S. Landsam, Judge E. T.
Booton and R. T. Morrison, all of Luray,
The property was bought of J. K.
Bartlett, Jr., of Baitimore, The caverns layer recently undergone extensive improvements.

Mrs. Fannie Taylor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 15 - Mrs.
Fannic Taylor died last night at her home here at the age of seventy-four years. She had recently moved here from Crewe. Va. and her remains will be taken to that piece for interment.

yes. Now you have me taiking that way, why iss it?"
"Ay, ay, Captuin," said von Louis,
"Hist them, and mark you, my man, there is a party of mere play folks heading this way. They are reported as coming in summer garb. What think ye of that? itere with the snow on the ground, and ice on the river and summer clothes on. That beats me, and it has beat his Majesty, Mack the One Time; So it is herein provided that you go out with divers trusty men and stop these poor dehided show folk, and see that they have enough on to head off the grip and other maladles characteristic of the Sunny South."

Then the doughty Sergeant and his selected men went forth to save the show people from the frigid blasts of the Sunny South.

CITY BONDS SOLD. Business Organizations to Combine Into Chamber of Commerce.

bine Into Chamber of Commerce.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GREENSBORO. N. C., Feb. 15.—Last night the Board of Aldermen, in special session, opened the bids for $25,000 worth of city bonds, and the bid of Scott and Stringfellow, of Richmond, Va., was accepted for the entire lot. The bonds were sold at par, and the tempany's bid for brokerage was 5.57 per cent. Of the one-quarter of a million dollars' worth of bonds sold, there are $10,000 worth of water works bonds, $75,000 of street bonds and $25,000 of sever bonds. The bonds are to bear four per cent. Interest.

A large and representative gathering of business men assembled at Hotel Guifer de last night, subject to a call from the Industrial and Immigration Association, to take steps looking to the merging of these three associations into a chamber of commerce. The organization will be perfected at a meeting to be held next Tuesday night. It is the purpose of the promoters to employ a salaried secretary, who will devote his entire time to business and industrial interests of the city.
